PRESS RELEASE

February 27, 2017 (5:10 p.m.)
(Assault Investigation)

The Salisbury Police Department received a number of calls today from concerned and frightened citizens seeking information on a report of a sexual predator(s) in our area. We are able to confirm that there is no evidence to support this report.

On February 20, 2017, detectives opened an investigation into allegations by a victim who reported she had been raped, kidnapped, and assaulted during the evening of February 19, 2017, while in the area of Rt. 50 and the intersection of Autumn Grove Court. During the course of an extensive investigation, which included various interviews, review of immediately available video footage and review of cellular telephone data, Investigators were able to determine that the initial report was inaccurate.

Investigators are continuing to work with the victim, her family and medical personnel. If you have additional concerns, please contact SPD at 410-548-3113. Anyone with information concerning this event is asked to call the Salisbury Police Department Criminal Investigation Division (410) 548-3113 or Crime Solvers (410) 548-1776.
